Candidate for office but a candidate for more business. I am a native of Kansas. A son of well respected parents. My father is at present devoting his entire time to lifting folks up. I am something under 50 years old; rather tall, and my wife says would be rather good looking lit were not for the way I parted my hair. I was married several years ago. Just how many I don't just remember. I married the daughter of a well respected Irishman of lowa, who says there is only one thing of his life that he is really ashamed of and that was allowing his daughter to marry. But don't blame him for that, for we did that before we told him anything about it; but really believe I am just the man for the place, and would really appreciate your support.

You will find me at 100 E. 6th st., dealing in stoves, furniture and rugs
